- c. In the performance of his/her duties, the Compliance Officer shall have access to all information and documents relating to the Securities of the Company.

3. Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

4.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

4.1.1 Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- i. an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- ii. not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

4.2 Need to know basis - Price Sensitive Information of the Company is to be handled on a "need to know" basis i.e. should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or apprehension of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

4.3 Limited access to confidential information - All manual files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. All Computer files must have adequate security.

4. Prevention of Misuse of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

5.1 No insider shall Trade in Securities of the Company either on their own behalf or on behalf of any other person when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.

Note: When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that, as recognized under the Regulations, an Insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:

- a) the transaction was an off-market inter se transfer between the insiders of the Company all of whom were in possession of the same Unpublished Price Sensitive Information without being in breach of Clause 4 of this Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under Clause 4.1.1 of this Code.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- b) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Clause 4 of this Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under Clause 4.1.1 of this Code.

- c) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

- d) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

- e) In case of non-individual insiders:-

- a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
- b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

- f) the trades were pursuant to trading plan set up in accordance with Clause 6 hereunder

In the case of Connected Persons, the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be on such Connected Person and in other cases the onus would be on SEBI. Standards and requirements notified by SEBI from time to time as it may deem necessary for the purposes of the Regulations shall be applicable to the Directors, Employees, Designated Persons and Connected Persons and the Company.

5. Trading Plan:

6.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (iii) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;
 - (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

Explanation:

- (i) While the parameters in sub-clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (iv) shall be optional.
- (ii) The price limit in sub-clause (iv) shall be rounded off to the nearest numeral.
- (iii) Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.
- (iv) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

6.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan made as above to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the regulations and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take expressed undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

The pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Further, the trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

6.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

If the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) Clause 6.2 (iii), the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed

6.5 The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the Trading Plan within two trading days of receipt of the Trading Plan. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

6. Trading Window and Trading closure:

- a. All Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the period when the trading window is closed. Compliance Officer shall by way of e-mail or through generally accepted means of communication, communicate the period of window closure to designated persons. It shall be the onus of designated persons to communicate the non- trading period to their immediate relatives.
- b. Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window for Dealing in Securities of the Company shall be closed 7 days prior to and 2 days after the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made Public for the following purposes-
 1. Declaration of dividends (interim and final);

 3. Amalgamation, mergers, de-mergers takeovers and buy-back;
 4. Changes in key managerial personnel;
 5. Changes in Capital Structure;
 6. Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking, and
 7. Any other events which Compliance officer may determine from time to time.

Provided in case of Declaration of standalone and consolidated financial results (quarterly and annual), the trading window shall be closed from end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

The trading window restrictions mentioned above shall not apply in respect of:

- i. transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 4 of the said Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the SEBI;
- ii. transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time."
- iii. subscription to the issue of non-convertible securities, carried out in accordance with the framework specified by the Board from time to time.

c. In case of ESOPs, the exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

d. The trading window shall be closed when the compliance Officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Provided that, for unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Listed Company, trading window may not be closed.

e. The Compliance Officer shall determine the time for re-opening of the trading window after taking into account various factors including the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which shall be not be earlier than 48 hours after the information, becomes generally available.

When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to preclearance by the compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above such thresholds as specified in Point 8 - Pre- Clearance of Trades.

f. Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of Securities of the Company shall not enter into a contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of Securities during the six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the Securities of the Company at any time. The compliance officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.

In case a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI Board under the Act.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of Stock Options.

- g. All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives, and Connected Persons of the Company intending to deal in the Securities of the Company up to the Threshold Limit as defined may do so without any pre-clearance.

Any employee can voluntary submit original information relating to alleged violation of this insider trading code that has occurred, is occurring or has a reasonable belief that it is about to occur, to the Office of Informant Protection of SEBI in the format and manner set out in SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019.

12.2 Protection against retaliation and Victimization

Employee shall be protected against any adverse action and/ or discrimination as a result of a reporting to SEBI under this Scheme, provided it is justified and made in good faith. The organization is forbidden from taking directly or indirectly any adverse action against employee for exercising employee right as above.

Adverse action is defined as:

- Discharge
- Termination of service
- Demotion
- Suspension
- Threatening
- Harassment
- Discrimination against employment

12. Process to be followed in sensitive transaction

A. In case of Specific Transaction(s)

The Managing Director shall give prior notice to employee who are brought 'inside' on sensitive transaction and also made aware about the duties and responsibilities attached to receipt of inside information and liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information on case to case basis.

B. In general

Non-disclosure Agreement shall be executed with every incoming/existing employee of the Company.

13. Other Restrictions

- A. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- B. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

14. Disclaimer

This policy is only internal code of conduct and one of the measures to avoid insider trading. Every insider is required to familiarize himself with the SEBI regulation as it will be the responsibility of each insider to ensure compliance of this code, SEBI regulation and other related statutes fully.

15. SEBI Regulations/Statutory Provisions to Prevail

Please note that in case the SEBI regulations or any statutory provisions are more stringent than those contained in the code, the SEBI regulations / statutory provisions will prevail. This policy is only internal code of conduct and one of the measures to avoid insider trading. It will be the responsibility of each employee to ensure compliance of SEBI guidelines and other related statutes.

16. General Provision:

The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by the directors / designated employees for a minimum period of five years.

The Compliance Officer shall place before the Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer or a committee specified by the company, on a monthly basis all the details of the dealing in the securities by the employees / director / officer of the company and the accompanying documents that such persons had executed under the pre-dealing procedure as envisaged in this code.

17. Penalties:

Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her dependents). Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Company. The penalties will be as per the Securities Contract (Regulation) Act, 1956.

Employees who violate code of conduct shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include issuing of warning letter, levy of penalties, wage freeze, suspension, recovery and clawback etc. Further any amount collected under this clause shall be to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education fund administered by the SEBI under the Act.

The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI and other authorities from taking any action in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

19. Intimation to Stock Exchanges:

The Compliance officer shall inform Stock Exchanges promptly of any violation of the Code in such form and manner as may be specified by the SEBI from time to time.
